THE FAIRMOUNT PARK ART ASSOCIATION is a society of ladies and gentlemen whose object it is to adorn our beautiful Park with statues, busts, fountains, and such other works of art as good taste shall dictate and the Commissioners of the Park sanction.

This pamphlet contains a full explanation of the means by which this end is to be accomplished; together with the Charter, By-Laws, and a list of members. It is issued for the information of the public, so that those who are animated by a love of the beautiful in Nature and in Art, and have a sense of pride in this great ornament of our city, can unite with the Association, and contribute for this laudable purpose.

The bronze statue "Night," which was presented to this Association by Mr. Edwin N. Benson, has been offered to and accepted by the Commissioners of the Park; and they have directed it to be placed on George's Hill.

It is the intention of the Association to set up some other and very handsome piece of bronze before the close of the current year. The Committee on Works of Art now have the matter in charge.

ENTRANCE FEE (paid only once)	$1.00

AN ACT

TO INCORPORATE THE FAIRMOUNT PARK ART ASSOCIATION.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That A. J. Drexel, James L. Claghorn, Edward H. Trotter, William J. Horstmann, Henry C. Gibson, Samuel S. White, Henry K. Fox, Thomas Dolan, Archibald Campbell, Joseph Frailey Smith, John Bellangee Cox, H. Corbit Ogden, Frederick Meade Bissell, Walter Lippincott, and Charles H. Howell, and their associates, subscribers to the Association called the Fairmount Park Art Association, and all such persons as may hereafter be admitted members of the same, shall be and they are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of Fairmount Park Art Association, to have perpetual succession, to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded in all courts of record or elsewhere, to use a common seal, and break, alter and renew the same at pleasure, and to take, hold and enjoy lands, tenements and hereditaments.

Provided, That the yearly income of the real estate held by them shall not exceed two thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the objects of the said corporation shall be the accumulation of a fund by means of annual contributions of small fixed sums of money by the members thereof, and by legacies, donations, et cetera, which fund, or the interest thereon, shall be devoted to and expended in adorning Fairmount Park, in the City of Philadelphia, with statues, busts, and other works of art, either of a memorial nature or otherwise.

SECTION 3. That the said corporation shall have power to make such by-laws as they may deem proper to enable them to carry out the objects of the Association, and the same to alter, amend, add to or repeal at their pleasure. Provided, That such by-laws be not repugnant to nor inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth, or of the United States of America.

SECTION 4. That the said corporation shall be managed in such way and by such number of officers, trustees, and other persons as the by-laws may prescribe; and the powers and functions of such officers, trustees, and other persons, the rights and duties of members, the manner of their admission into the Association, and the causes which may justify their expulsion or suspension, and all other concerns of the said corporation, shall be fixed and regulated by its by-laws, which shall be made and adopted, and are hereby required so to be, within one year after the date of this Act; and the said by-laws shall be altered and amended only in the manner provided in the said by-laws as then adopted.

SECTION 5. The present Board of Trustees of the said Association are hereby constituted the Board of Trustees of the corporation hereby created, and shall continue in office until their successors shall be duly elected and organized in accordance with the provisions of the by-laws of this corporation.

W. ELLIOTT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JAS. S. RUTAN,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the second day of February, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

JNO. W. GEARY.

BY-LAWS

OF

Fairmount Park Art Association.

ARTICLE I.

OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

1. The affairs of this Association shall be conducted by the Board of Trustees, who shall be members of the Association; except when otherwise provided for in these By-Laws.

2. The Board of Trustees named in the Act of Incorporation shall hold their office until the first annual meeting of the Association.

3. The Board of Trustees which shall be elected at the first annual meeting of the Association shall on the first Monday after their election, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, divide themselves into three separate classes of five trustees each, and shall determine by lot which shall be the first class, which the second class, and which the third class. The trustees of the first class shall continue in office for one year from the date of their election; the trustees of the second class shall continue in office for two years from the date of their election; and the trustees of the third class shall continue in office for three years from the date of their election. And every trustee shall continue in office until his successor shall be duly elected and installed. At each subsequent annual meeting of the members of the Association, five trustees shall be elected by ballot, and shall continue in office for the term of three years. The Board of Trustees shall have power to fill vacancies in its own membership, by temporary appointments, until the annual meeting of the Association next following the date of such temporary appointments, when all vacancies shall be filled by election by ballot of the members of the Association. .

4. The Board of Trustees shall at their first meeting organize themselves by electing by ballot a President, a Vice-President, one Treasurer and one Secretary; and such additional Vice-Presidents and Secretaries shall be elected from time to time as the Board of Trustees may deem necessary.

5. They shall have control of all the accounts, moneys, and property of the Association, and may appropriate the funds thereof in such manner as may appear to them most conducive to the interests and objects of the Association.

6. They shall meet once in every three months, at such time and place as they may appoint.

7. Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be held at the call of the President, or of three members of the Board.

8. Five members of the Board of Trustees shall at all times constitute a quorum of the Board for the transaction of business; except when otherwise provided for in these By-Laws.

9. The Board shall have power to apply the funds of the Association to the purchase and setting up, within Fairmount Park, of such works of art, and at such times, as may be decided upon at any meeting of the Board.

10. No committee, excepting the Committee of Ways and Means, as provided for in Article VIII. of these By-Laws, shall have authority to contract bills, or make appropriations; except by special resolution of the Board of Trustees.

11. The Board may appoint such counsellors-at-law as they may think proper.

12. The Board shall present a full report of their proceedings, and of the state of this Association, at each annual meeting of the Association.

ARTICLE II.

OF MEETINGS.

1. The annual meetings of this Association shall be held on the third Tuesday of October in each and every year.

2. The regular meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held quarterly, at such times and places as may be appointed by the Board.

ARTICLE III.

OF THE PRESIDENT.

1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees; he shall be a member, ex-officio, of all committees of the Board; he shall appoint all committees not appointed by the Board; he shall announce the result of all votes, and see that all the officers and committees properly perform their duties; he shall enforce the provisions of the Charter and By-Laws; he shall countersign all drafts drawn by the Secretary upon the Treasurer; and he shall have power to call special meetings of the Board of Trustees at his discretion. It shall also be his duty to call such special meetings upon receiving the written application of three or more members of the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE IV.

OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT.

1. In the absence of the President, all his duties shall be performed and fulfilled by the Vice-President.

2. In the absence of the President and Vice-President, the Board of Trustees shall elect a President pro tempore.

ARTICLE V.

OF THE ADDITIONAL VICE-PRESIDENTS.

1. Three additional Vice-Presidents shall or may be elected yearly by the Board of Trustees.

2. The additional Vice-Presidents shall be ex-officio members of the Board of Trustees.

3. No member of the Board of Trustees shall be eligible to the office of additional Vice-President.

ARTICLE VI.

OF THE SECRETARY.

1. The Secretary, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give such security for the faithful discharge thereof as may be deemed sufficient by the Board of Trustees.

2. He shall, in books provided for that purpose, fairly and regularly enter all the rules and regulations of this Association, with a register of all the names of members. He shall carefully record minutes of all the proceedings of the Association and its Board of Trustees.

3. He shall make out bills for the current dues of members, attend to their collection, keep regular books of account as well of receipts as disbursements, and pay all moneys received by him to the Treasurer, and take his receipt therefor.

4. He shall summon the Board of Trustees as often as required; notify all committees of their appointment through their chairmen; transmit to the respective chairmen all necessary documents relative to their committees within two days after the appointment thereof; and he shall incorporate in the minutes all reports of the Treasurer and of the several committees.

5. He shall present to the Board of Trustees, at their stated meetings, a detailed report of his proceedings. He shall also present to the Board a full and particular report of the operations of the Association, during each year, in time to have it incorporated in the annual report of the Board of Trustees; and he shall do all the writing and other business which the Board may require.

6. He shall report in writing to the Board of Trustees, at the end of each year, the names of all members of the Association who shall be, at the date of such report, in arrears for dues for two or more years, with such information as he may have in regard to them.

7. Upon retiring from his office, he shall deliver to his successor all books, papers, moneys, vouchers, and other property of the Association, which may be in his custody.

ARTICLE VII.

OF THE TREASURER.

1. The Treasurer shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Board of Trustees, and the books, papers, moneys, and accounts in his possession shall be at all times subject to their inspection and control.

2. Before entering upon the duties of his office, he shall give security, in such sum as the Board of Trustees shall deem sufficient, for the faithful custody of all moneys and other property that may come into his possession by virtue of his office.

3. He shall receive and receipt for all moneys that may come into his possession, through the Secretary or otherwise, and shall deposit the same in such bank or institution as the Board of Trustees may direct. He shall pay all drafts drawn upon him by the Secretary and approved or countersigned by the President. He shall report the condition of the treasury to the Board of Trustees at every stated meeting thereof, and at special meetings thereof when the Board shall require him so to do. He shall also furnish every year a full and concise statement of the finances of the Association, to be incorporated in the annual report.

4. At the expiration of his office, he shall transfer and hand over to his successor all the books, papers, certificates, securities, moneys and other property of the Association, which may be in his possession.

5. He shall from time to time invest such amount of the unappropriated funds of the Association as the Board of Trustees may direct.

ARTICLE VIII.

OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

The following standing committees shall be elected or appointed. They may adopt such regulations for their government as may be necessary to effect the objects of their appointment; Provided, that such regulations shall at all times be subject to the revision of the Board of Trustees, to wit:

1. The Committee of Ways and Means shall consist of five members, any three of whom shall be a quorum. It shall be their duty to devise and report to the Board, at its stated meetings, such measures as they may deem conducive to the advancement of the prosperity and interests of the Association, and the carrying out the objects and intentions thereof.

They shall examine all bills rendered against the Association before appropriations shall be made for the settlement thereof.

They shall have power to order the payment of any bill or bills, the contracting of which shall have been authorized by the Board of Trustees, which they know to be correct; and no previous action of the Board thereupon shall be necessary.

They shall ascertain from time to time the indebtedness of the members of the Association ; and provide for the proper payment of all moneys due to or from the Association. For the proper discharge of their duties, they shall have access at all times to the books and papers in the possession of the Secretary and Treasurer.

They shall, subject to the controlling action of the Board of Trustees, direct and superintend the erection or setting up of all works of art that shall be contributed by this Association to Fairmount Park.

2. The Committee on Works of Art shall be composed of ten members, at least five of whom shall be members of the Board of Trustees, and the remainder shall be members of this Association.

Matters relating to the purchase or acceptance of works of art shall be referred to this committee, to report to the Board of Trustees.

It shall also be their duty to report the approval or disapproval of the Commissioners of Fairmount Park of every design, model, or object of art offered for purchase by, or for the acceptance of, this Association.

They shall also, acting with the advice and consent of the Commissioners of Fairmount Park, select the site or sites for the erection or setting up of all works of art that shall be contributed by this Association for the adornment of Fairmount Park.

3. The Auditing Committee shall consist of two members other than the Secretary and Treasurer, whose duty it shall be to audit, settle and adjust the accounts of the Secretary and Treasurer immediately before each annual meeting of the Association, and to report the result of their investigations to the Board of Trustees in time to allow the Board to take action upon such reports previously to the annual meetings of the Association.

ARTICLE IX.

OF REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

All committees shall report at each stated meeting of the Board of Trustees. No committee shall be discharged until all bills incurred by it shall have been paid.

ARTICLE X.

OF VACANCIES IN COMMITTEES.

The President shall fill all vacancies that may occur in any standing or special committee ; and the Board of Trustees shall have the power to remove any member of any committee at its pleasure.

ARTICLE XI.

OF THE CHAIRMEN OF COMMITTEES.

1. He shall be the chairman of a committee who shall be first named thereon; and he shall act as chairman thereof until another shall have been chosen in his stead.

2. All reports of special committees shall be signed by a majority of the respective committees; except in the case of minority reports.

3. It shall be sufficient if the chairmen only sign the reports of standing committees.

4. The chairmen of the respective committees shall call the meetings thereof; and shall notify the members thereof of the time and place of assembling.

ARTICLE XII.

OF MEMBERS.

1. The entrance-fee into this Association shall be one dollar, which shall be payable in advance, and shall be set apart as the Expense Fund, and shall be devoted to and appropriated towards the defrayment of the ordinary and current expenses of the Association. Any surplus of the said Expense Fund that may remain after the defrayment of the ordinary and current expenses of any year, may, at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, be transferred to and incorporated with the general fund of the Association.

2. Each member of the Association shall pay into the General Fund thereof the sum of five dollars per annum, or such less sum as the Board of Trustees may fix. The General Fund shall be devoted to and appropriated towards the general objects of the Association as set forth in its Charter and By-Laws.

3. Every member of this Association shall, at the time of his entrance into it, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, sign the Charter and By-Laws of the Association, and shall also register with the Secretary his place of business or residence.

4. Any person may become a life member upon paying to the Secretary the sum of fifty dollars in addition to the entrance-fee.

5. The dignity and privilege of honorary membership may be conferred upon any proper person at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

6. Any member who may desire to resign shall signify his wish in writing, addressed to the Board of Trustees, and shall pay all dues, including those of the current year.

7. At the request of thirty members of the Association, a special meeting of the Association shall be called by the Secretary, notice of which shall be given three days previously in at least three of the daily newspapers of the city of Philadelphia.

8. Twenty-five members of the Association assembled at a special meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE XIII.

OF DELINQUENT MEMBERS.

If any member shall allow his or her dues to be in arrears for two years or more, or shall refuse to pay his or her yearly contribution, his or her name may, at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, be stricken from the list of members.

ARTICLE XIV.

OF THE AMENDMENT OF THE BY-LAWS.

No alteration or amendment of these By-Laws shall be made, unless such alteration or amendment shall have been proposed at a special or stated meeting of the Board of Trustees, at least one month before action shall be taken thereon.
